

APPENDIX E

DISPERSED FUNDS FROM HILSC

Organization	Total	Est # of people will be served	Purpose
Al-Noor Society of Greater Houston	$42,000	20	To support undocumented and low-income clients who were impacted by Hurricane Harvey through rental assistance and other basic needs.
Daya	$42,000	60	To provide trauma-informed, culturally competent services and financial assistance for short-term rental assistance, utilities, groceries, personal items, furniture, transportation, car repairs, gasoline, medical costs, childcare, and emergency hotel accommodation to immigrant survivors of domestic violence who were impacted by Hurricane Harvey.
Fey Justicia Worker Center	$20,000	16	To provide direct assistance, including housing, medical bills, food, personal items, transportation, mental health, or immigration legal services, to immigrant workers who were impacted by Harvey; and to support a resiliency and vicarious trauma training for staff and allies.
Kids Need of Defense (KIND)	$10,000	20	To provide direct financial assistance for court costs/fees, mental health, transportation, and other basic needs to immigrant children who are in immigration proceedings and who were impacted by Hurricane Harvey.
Living Hope Wheelchair Association	$ 24,000	100	To support immigrant clients impacted by Hurricane Harvey with direct assistance for housing and shelter repairs, rental assistance, medical needs, food, and transportation. Funding is also to be used to support mental health workshops in Spanish for staff, members and leaders.
West Street Recovery	$ 47,000	45	To provide direct assistance to undocumented and mixed status households still recovering from Harvey and in need of building materials, safety equipment, contractors, and case management.
The Alliance	$15,000	60	To provide mental health care and self-care support to The Alliance staff who work with clients who were directly impacted by Hurricane Harvey.
Equal Justice Works	$575,872	500	To support two-year immigration legal fellows as part of the Disaster Recovery Legal Corps at Tahirih Justice Center, Human Rights First, Catholic Charities, and YMCA International Services.